Dynamite Daniela Dashes Winter Doldrums

February 5—8, 2010

Buenos Aires native, Daniela Arcuri, returns to Chicago the first weekend in February to share her award-winning tango experience with dancers at the American Tango Institute! Daniela is an extraordinary tango performer and a delightful workshop instructor, who has taught tango, choreographed and performed all over the world! Her first visit to ATI proved her to be a hidden gem in the US tango scene, endearing her to us with her remarkable, warm and personal approach to teaching. Don't miss her outstanding workshops exploring turns, vals, milonga and Tango Villa Urquiza!

Her well-honed tango style developed through ballet & modern-contemporary dance training, years spent dancing & observing in the milongas of Bs As and the influence & instruction from some of the great "milongueros" in Bs As. Her first tango performance was in a production with Juan Carlos Copes, Maria Nieves and Pepito Avellaneda. She was a teacher & choreographer in Eduardo Arquimbau's tango academy in Bs As.

Daniela has appeared in commercials, on numerous television shows and in tango shows in Bs As. She has performed along with superstars such as Julio Iglesias and Madonna and with The Symphonic Orchestra from the Hollywood Bowl, and danced in and consulted on two movies, "Evita" with Madonna and "El Acompañamiento". In 2008 Daniela choreographed & performed in "Sebastian Tango", a tango production presented at the Complejo Cultural Borges in Buenos Aires.
